Dedicated Regina Member Honoured with REALTOR® of the Year Award

Regina, Saskatchewan — Every now and then, someone stands out for their ability to influence positive change through their dedication to the real estate industry, commitment to volunteerism and passion for mentorship and development. The Association of Regina REALTORS® (ARR) is pleased to announce that Bernie Weinbender, who demonstrates these qualities and more, was selected by a team of his peers to be named the 2017 ARR REALTOR® of the Year.

Sponsored by the Canadian Mortgage and Housing Corporation, the award is presented annually to an ARR member who exhibits outstanding leadership and dedication to both the real estate industry and the community at large.

A thirty-two-year veteran in the industry, Weinbender began his real estate career as a broker/owner in Swift Current. During his time in the southwest region, he served as local board President, and volunteered on virtually every committee – Finance, Standard Forms, Education, Discipline, Political Action and Nominations.

His active involvement in the real estate community continued when, in 2007, he took on the Broker role with CENTURY 21 Dome Realty in Regina. He served as a Director for the ARR in 2013 and 2014 and has been an active participant on the Nominations Committee, kettlebell drives, and at ARR events.

Extending beyond local participation, Weinbender has served on both the Education and Forms Committees with the Association of Saskatchewan REALTORS®, and has played a large role in real estate education through his involvement with the Saskatchewan Real Estate Commission. His passion for professional development is evident through his commitment to provide education, training and updated skills for agents within his own brokerage.

“Bernie embodies the true definition of professional,” says ARR President Tim Otitoju. “He has supported the real estate industry across the province for over three decades and carries himself with diplomacy and integrity. He is well-deserving of this award!”
