

ARR RECOGNIZED BY UNIVERSITY FOR SCHOLARSHIPS CONTRIBUTION

July 22, 2008

For immediate release

Regina, Saskatchewan - The Association of Regina REALTORS® Inc is being recognized on a newly created donor wall by the University of Regina.

The intent of the wall is to recognize and thank those donors who have provided support to the University over its history. The wall is made up of panels and an electronic touch screen display. The association will appear in the $25,000-$49,900 category on the touch screen display.

Since 1977, the association has provided assistance for two scholarships to undergraduate students who have attended high school in Regina and have exhibited academic excellence and demonstrated ability in other areas such as leadership, fine arts or athletics.

The association currently funds two $1,000 scholarships annually.

The donor wall and display is located in the Phillips, Hager and North Investment Management Ltd. Atrium in the Centre for Kinesiology, Health and Sport at the university.

“We would like to thank the University for taking this initiative to recognize donors over its history. We’re extremely proud of our scholarship program and the assistance it has provided to many students with their academics for over thirty years”, said Gord Archibald, Executive Officer of the association.

The Association of Regina REALTORS® Inc. is governed by a volunteer Board of Directors elected from the ranks of the membership. The Association has been serving Regina and area since 1912 and ensures that its members adhere to a strict Code of Ethics and Standards of Business Practice.

The Association provides the Multiple Listing Service® to Regina and area, publishes the Regina Real Estate Review and operates The REALTOR® Channel on cable TV channel 9.
