ASSOCIATION OF REGINA REALTORS® INC. ANNOUNCES 2009 UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS RECIPIENTS

Regina, Saskatchewan – December 17, 2009 - the recipients of this year's Association of Regina REALTORS® Inc. University of Regina scholarships have been announced.

Each year the Association awards two scholarships to U of R students to encourage and support excellence in education. The criteria include having attended high school in Regina, academic standing and demonstrated ability in such areas as leadership, athletics and fine arts.

Receiving a scholarship for the second time is Barbara Woolsey who is in her third year of Journalism. She works as a volunteer floor director with the community channel of the local cable television company and with the Kids Help Phone. Barbara attended Luther College in Regina and is the daughter of REALTOR® Clair Woolsey. As part of her learning program, she will be involved in a three-month journalism internship in Bangkok, Thailand in 2010.

Also receiving a scholarship is Rebecca Lascue who is entering the fourth year of an Arts program with a major in Psychology. Following graduation she plans to commence studies in physiotherapy. In addition to academics, she is a singer/songwriter, and intends on continuing to pursue her passion for music. She has been a volunteer at the Wascana Rehabilitation Hospital, the Autism Resource Centre and recently organized a community song writing group. Rebecca attended Campbell Collegiate in Regina.

“Once again, we are very pleased to provide assistance to these two outstanding young people to help them with their studies”, said Gord Archibald, Executive Officer, Association of Regina REALTORS® Inc. “REALTORS® believe that it’s critical that we invest in the future of the community and country – our scholarship program is designed to do that.”

The Association established its scholarship program in 1977 and has provided assistance to over 60 U of R students since then.

The Association has been serving Regina and area since 1912 and ensures that its members adhere to a strict Code of Ethics and Standards of Business Practice. It provides the Multiple Listing Service® to Regina and area, publishes ReginaRealEstateReview.com and operates The REALTOR® Channel on cable TV channel 9
