REGINA REALTORS® SUPPORT NORTH CENTRAL YOUTH

Regina, Saskatchewan — Regina's North Central Family Centre (NCFC) youth are gaining the skills and confidence to become the "leaders of tomorrow" and positively help their community thanks to Regina REALTORS®.

The Association of Regina REALTORS® Inc. (ARR) donated $5,000 to the North Central Family Centre's Youth Empowerment Program—and almost $123,000 over the past twelve years—demonstrating its long-term commitment to assisting educate and create opportunities for the youth of North Central.

"The North Central Family Centre would like to take this opportunity to express our deep appreciation to ARR for its long-term investment in the children, youth and families of Regina North Central community. The ARR's generous donation will support our "Wolf Pack" Boys' Leadership Program, a program designed to help young boys gain a sense of responsibility to themselves and to their community. An emphasis is placed on cultural diversity and offering services that have a positive impact on the community" says Sandy Wankel, the NCFC's Co-founder and Executive Director.

Past support from Regina REALTORS® has included books and supplies for the Centre's classes: Children and Youth Literacy Program, English Second Language Program, Art's Program in addition to equipment for Clean the Neighbourhood Project, construction of a popular outdoor courtyard at the Centre, and paint for a colourful mural that young people created in memory of NCFC's other founder, Ivan Amichand.

"We support the vision and the work that North Central Family Centre has done in creating a welcoming, friendly and safe environment for all members of this community, helping steer it in a positive direction" says Gord Archibald, ARR Chief Executive Officer.

"It's heartwarming to provide this support on behalf of all Regina REALTORS® to NCFC. It is hard to put into words, when you see a bunch of youth who are excited to see what tomorrow brings—and I'm sure—NCFC has a lot to do with that".
